

CENTRAL OREGON
community college

Fall Reopening Plans at Central Oregon Community College

Laurie Chesley, President
Bend Chamber of Commerce
Thursday, September 10, 2020

- An Evolving Response
- Plan for Fall 2020
- Impact of COVID-19
- Questions or Feedback?

An Evolving Response

- The end of Winter 2020 Term
- Spring 2020 Term
- Summer 2020 Term

COCC's Plan for Fall 2020 Term

- Mix of classes offered remotely (~80%) vs. in-person (~20%)
- Residence Hall
- Student Services
- Campus Facilities and Community Access to Campus

Some Important Points to Remember About the Revised Plan

- Plan applies to all four of our campuses.
- Plan will be reassessed for Winter Term.
- Our plan is informed by:
 - HECC/OHA reopening guidelines
 - Latest health data from state and local public health authorities
 - National trends in health data and school openings
 - Decisions of our local K-12 districts
 - Assessment of risk for the College and our local communities

Impact of COVID-19

- Students
- College
- Faculty and Staff
- Community

How COCC has adapted to ensure student success and community safety

Congratulations, Grads!

Angelica Mares

Associate of Arts
Oregon Transfer

#TogetherBobcats

CENTRAL OREGON
community college

A graduation card for Angelica Mares. At the top, a white banner with a ribbon effect contains the text "Congratulations, Grads!". Below this, the name "Angelica Mares" is written in a large, white, sans-serif font. Underneath the name, her degree information "Associate of Arts Oregon Transfer" and the hashtag "#TogetherBobcats" are listed in a smaller white font. To the right of the text is a circular portrait of Angelica, a young woman with long dark hair wearing a black lace top. At the bottom left of the card is the Central Oregon Community College logo, which consists of three concentric circles and the text "CENTRAL OREGON community college".

Questions or Feedback?

Congratulations, Grads!

Kevin Ferns

AAS in Structural Fire Science

#TogetherBobcats

CENTRAL OREGON
community college

A graduation card for Kevin Ferns. At the top, a white banner with a ribbon effect contains the text "Congratulations, Grads!". Below this, the name "Kevin Ferns" is written in a large, white, sans-serif font. Underneath the name, his degree information "AAS in Structural Fire Science" and the hashtag "#TogetherBobcats" are listed in a smaller white font. To the right of the text is a circular photograph of Kevin in full firefighter gear, including a yellow helmet and a green jacket, working in a wooded area. At the bottom left of the card is the Central Oregon Community College logo, which consists of three concentric circles and the text "CENTRAL OREGON community college".